☐ David's email

David writes an email to Luca, a pupil at his partner school in Germany.

Dear Luca,

My name is David Williams and I am eleven years old.
I'm at Hendon School. Let me tell you something about my family.

We live in a nice house in London. My mum's name is Alice. She is 37 years old. My dad's name is Thomas. He is 39. I haven't got any brothers or sisters. But I have got some cousins!

My father's parents are Janet and Ivor Williams. My grandmother is 65 and my grandfather is two years older¹. They have four children: my dad, my uncle Morgan Williams – his wife is my aunt Fay Williams – my aunt Gwen Collins and my aunt Jane Swann. Gwen is divorced² from Paul. They have one child. Her name is Gillian. She is twelve. Gillian, her mum and her mum's girlfriend Anna live in Notting Hill. Gillian goes to Holland Park School. But in the afternoon, Gillian and I often play games together.

My aunt Jane Swann lives in Scotland with her husband Tom and their son Sam and their daughter Emma. Jane works in a school as a teacher. Her son Sam is twelve and Emma is fifteen years old. We don't meet very often. But when we do, Sam and I play football all the time. It's his favourite sport. His sister doesn't like any sports. She likes meeting her friends and reading books.

I have another grandmother. She's my mother's mother and her name is Louise Hamilton. Her husband, my grandfather, is called³ James. They live in Brighton. My family and I always visit them in the summer holidays. They have got two daughters: my aunt Lisa Brown and my mum. Lisa's husband is Charles. They live in a house with Louise and James. Their son's name is Terry. He is fourteen years old. He is very good at skateboarding. But he also likes playing table tennis.

Please write soon and tell me about your family.

Bye,
David
